

	Lindsay Dodsworth, Chair Governor since Sept 2021 Lindsay Dodsworth is the Chair of a Family Office which she set up with the founders and has overseen the evolution of its business and charitable activities. She read music at Trinity Hall, Cambridge before qualifying as a Chartered Accountant and Chartered Tax Adviser with Price Waterhouse and then became an international tax partner at EY. Lindsay relaxes by playing the piano and Javanese gamelan music, singing in choirs and particularly loves walking the dog on a Norfolk beach. Lindsay is married to John Willis, founder and CEO of Power2Inspire, and their two daughters are former pupils of the school.
	Mr Paul Taylor, Vice-Chair Governor since Nov 2017 Mr Paul Taylor retired as Headmaster of Framlingham College in 2019, having joined in 2009 from The King's School, Canterbury, where he had been Lower Master (Deputy Head). Mr Taylor also worked for 13 years at Tonbridge School, where he taught History at all levels, was a boarding Housemaster, Director of Sport and Master i/c Cricket. Prior to his career in teaching, Mr Taylor played professional cricket (for Surrey CCC) and also worked for several years in the advertising industry. He is married to Amanda and they have four children.
	Mr Patrick Blakesley QC Governor since Sept 2018 Mr Blakesley is a barrister and was appointed Queen's Counsel in February 2018. He practises at Crown Office Chambers, where he specialises in catastrophic personal injury and fatal accident claims, product liability, and insurance. He read Classics at Balliol College, Oxford, before taking a law conversion course at City University and qualifying as a barrister in 1993. Mr Blakesley is married to Polly, Professor in Russian and European Art at Cambridge University, and their son and daughter are former pupils of the school.
	Professor Deborah Howard Governor since Sept 2015 Deborah Howard is Professor Emerita of Architectural History and Director of Research in the Faculty of Architecture and History of Art in the University of Cambridge and a Fellow of St John's College. Her principal research interests are the art and architecture of Venice and the Veneto; music and architecture in the Renaissance; and the relationship between Italy and the Eastern Mediterranean. She is a Fellow of the British Academy. Professor Howard and her husband, Malcolm Longair, have two grown-up children. She has previously been a governor of St Margaret's School in Edinburgh and the Perse School for Girls (now the Stephen Perse Foundation) in Cambridge.

	Professor Ann Louise Kinmonth CBE Governor since Jan 2018 Professor Kinmonth is a Fellow of St John’s College, where she has served on Council and headed a review of Admissions. Ann Louise is Emeritus Foundation Professor of General Practice in the University of Cambridge. Previously, she held the Chair at Southampton University, carrying out doctoral work in Oxford and taking her degree at New Hall Cambridge. Her research is in the prevention and management of diabetes and cardiovascular disease with particular contributions to the development of clinical trial methods, and the involvement of social scientists and anthropologists in medical research. As a Foundation fellow of the Academy of Medical Sciences, Ann Louise served on Council and is still an active Mentor. Professor Kinmonth is married to John A Davis, Emeritus Professor of Paediatrics at Cambridge, and has 5 stepchildren and 5 step-grandchildren.
	Mr Richard Murray – Governor for Teaching and Learning Governor since Sept 2014 Mr Murray has been Headmaster of Christ Church Cathedral School since 2014. He is a graduate of St Chad’s College Durham, where he also obtained an MA. His first teaching post was at The King’s School Gloucester from where he went on to teach at Rendcomb College. Following that he was a Housemaster at St Edward’s School, Oxford where he was also in charge of relations with prep schools. Mr Murray has three school-aged sons.
	Ms Susan Wessels - Governor for Welfare and Prevent Governor since February 2020 Susan Wessels has been the Senior Deputy Head at Framlingham College since 2011 where she has also been the Designated Safeguarding Lead. Prior to this she was at The King’s School, Canterbury, where she was a Housemistress and taught Physical Education and Geography. Before becoming a teacher, Susan was an international hockey player and represented South Africa 146 times and played in two Olympic Games, Sydney 2000 and Athens 2004 where she captained the team. Susan lives in Framlingham with her partner Alaster, his two children and their son.
	Dr Dean White Governor since February 2020 Dr Dean White is the Bursar at Stamford Endowed Schools. By background he is an accountant and is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants. After graduating from Durham University, Dean began his career in corporate finance in the Big Four; he then moved into industry where he held senior finance positions in a number of medium sized businesses. In 2014 he took up his first Bursar’s post at an HMC school, and moved to Stamford in 2019. He was previously Governor of a state sector senior school, and Trustee of his Durham College’s JCR. Outside of school, Dean is a keen amateur historian. His PhD focused on humanitarian intervention in the late 20th Century and he has published various articles and a monograph on the topic. Dean is married to Jenn, with whom he regularly competes against to hold the title of fastest runner in the house.

The Governors can be contacted by email at governors@sjcs.co.uk or by post, care of the Chair of Governors, St John’s College School, 73 Grange Road, Cambridge CB3 9AB

All Governors have responsibility for the whole school, including the Early Years Foundation Stage.